Shred 101 with Ian Bezpalko

Learn how to play fast and heavy – from tapping to sweep picking.

Ian has been playing guitar for 14 years and is well versed in styles ranging from metal to jazz. He has been performing in bands since the age of 14. He studied jazz at the Victoria Conservatory of Music, and has focused much of his playing around high velocity techniques such as shredding. His influences include Steve Vai, Paul Gilbert, John Petrucci and Jason Becker. Ian is in very high demand as an instructor at Long & McQuade's lesson centre.

SOCAN 101 with Terry O'Brien

Terry O'Brien from SOCAN will help demystify the business of music.

Terry is the Education and Outreach Manager for the West Coast Division of SOCAN - the Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada. He has also been elected to the Board of Directors of Music BC. He has over 30 years' experience in various sectors of the music industry. Prior to joining SOCAN in 2000, Terry was Vice President and General Manager of BMG Music Publishing Canada Inc. He is also a composer, recording artist and performer of ambient soundscape music.

Intro to Synthesizers with Wes Wraggett

Learn the basics, from filter to wave forms to envelopes. Everything you need to start programming your own sounds.

Active in electronic music composition, performance and instruction for over thirty years, Wes has programmed for a variety of clients such as the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, CBC, the National Ballet and private clients. As an instructor, he has taught and run programs at both the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto and the Victoria Conservatory of Music. His music has been recorded, broadcast and won prizes internationally. As a jazz guitarist, he can be found backing a number of talented singers in town.
